

CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH RESENTED

Germany Does Not Like Reference To Franco-German War.

AN ENTENTE WITH AMERICA

English Public Men and Press Favor
It as Worth More Than a German Alliance.

New York, Nov. 5.—According to the London correspondent of the Tribune, Englishmen have been noticing with surprise the bitter resentment excited in Germany by Mr. Chamberlain's casual reference to the Franco-German war. It is a straw showing the direction of the wind in Germany, where, in spite of the emperor's cordial relations with the reigning house here, England is regarded as an industrial enemy, and is not liked. This revelation of anti-English feeling in Germany strengthens the desire of public

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes.

The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble. Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. *Box of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. belongings caused by a collision between the steamer Claudine and the barkentine William Carson, wherein the Carson was sunk.

The point was raised by the appellees that the act which made provision for the judicial system of the district of Hawaii does not authorize the appeal of admiralty causes to the circuit court of appeals. The court held that it had jurisdiction.

A Football Victim.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Grave apprehensions are felt for the safety of James M. Sheldon, captain of the Chicago University football team who was injured in the game with Northwestern last Saturday. It is believed his skull was fractured and that his condition is much worse than physicians admit. This suspicion was increased when Sheldon's sister, Mrs. E. A. Elmes, was hastily summoned from her home in Forest, Ill.

Porto Ricans See the President.

Washington, Nov. 4.—A delegation from the Porto Rico chamber of commerce, headed by Antonio Balanquilla, called upon the President today and submitted some dispatches in favor of a duty of 5 cents a pound on coffee from countries other than Porto Rico. They claim that such a protective duty is necessary to build up the coffee industry of the island. The delegation has been touring the United States for the purpose of investigating the industrial conditions here. They were accompanied by Maj. Gen. Fishback of Boston.

President Goes Home to Vote.

Washington, Nov. 4.—President Roosevelt left today at 11 o'clock for Oyster Bay, where he will vote tomorrow. He was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Secy. Cortelyou, Asst. Secy. Loeb and Henry Plunkney, the White House steward. The party traveled in the Action in Turkey.

SMYRNA CUSTOMS SEIZED.

Admiral Galliard's Squadron Takes Definite Action—Government Inter-pellated in the Deputies.

New York, Nov. 5.—It is learned from a reliable source that France has not, up to the present, informed the triple alliance of any contemplated naval action in Turkey, says the Herald's Berlin correspondent.

The Tagblatt compares the attitude of M. Delcasse to that of Napoleon III in 1870. Like the sultan, King William of Prussia had already yielded when France, by urgently pressing new claims, critically embittered the situation.

SMYRNA CUSTOMS SEIZED.

London, Nov. 5.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail says he understands that dispatches have been received at the French capital announcing that Admiral Galliard's division of the Mediterranean squadron has arrived at Smyrna and seized the customs.

GOVERNMENT INTERPELLED.

Paris, Nov. 4.—In the chamber of deputies today M. Sembat (radical socialist), interpellated the government on the Franco-Turkish dispute, criticizing the action taken by France in regard to the seizure of the customs at Smyrna.

The foreign minister, M. Delcasse, replied that France's patience had been exhausted by the port's refusing to permit the French to land their troops. France in the present difficulty pursued no fresh advantage but everybody would agree that this effort on the part of France ought at least to serve to put an end to the anarchy and unjust treatment of which French workers in the orient, scholastic and hospital establishments and commercial and industrial enterprises had been the object. He added: "Unless parliament arrests our action the government wishes to show that France, after exemplary patience, has other things to oppose in the long and persistent refusal to do justice than simple observation. The government intervened in the quays question in order to get Turkey to fulfill her engagements. If the government had not done so there would have been an end to the numerous enterprises which France had created in Turkey, in the shape of railroads, roads, lighthouses and banks."

The port has also persisted in its refusal to reimburse MM. Tubini and Lorando, in spite of the decrees of the tribunals in their favor. The government will only present to the port demands which are in conformity with its conscience and which can be sustained in perfect tranquility of mind before the whole world. The debt has been reduced by a large percentage and the port, in August, agreed to give satisfaction, but on the morning these arrangements were forgotten and others were proposed. Our minister then ceased official relations with the port. There was no ultimatum, but the cessation of relations indicated that the government took the port's word seriously and that it intended that the engagements entered into should be respected, but it reserved to itself fixing the moment for their execution.

"Our rights are certain and nobody will dispute them. Our action is legitimate and nobody can take umbrage at it and as our patience has been long, so our action must be more resolute."

As to Armenia, M. Delcasse said that during the past three years he had not overlooked the question, and while defending France's material interests he had displayed equal solicitude for her moral interests and for her traditions. M. Delcasse said also that the appearance of French cruisers off the Turkish coast had several times proved that France had not forgotten the protection she owed to Christians, and the latter understood it. It is true that the reforms promised the Armenians had not been executed, that the Armenians had too often been the victims of unpunished outrages, and that oppression also reigned in Macedonia and in old Serbia. The French government put forth every effort to restore justice and peace, but France was not alone bound by the treaty of Berlin. The chamber could rest assured that the government would never forget its duties to humanity. But it must, first of all, remember its duty to France. The foreign minister's statements were greeted with applause.

M. Sembat was not satisfied with Delcasse's statement, and moved that the chamber, convinced that France would fail in her duty if she did not protect the Armenians in an effective manner, resolve that the government facilitate this protection by an agreement between the powers.

The premier, M. Waldeck-Rousseau, then rose and said that M. Delcasse's statement showed that the government's task was heavy and complicated. As the government desired respect for the interests of its fellow-citizens, so it intended to defend the patriots of all lands who were struggling for freedom. It needed the confidence of the chamber in order to accomplish its task.

M. Sembat's motion was rejected by 394 to 25 votes.

M. Castene then moved that the chamber, confident that the government would enforce respect for the interests and honor of France, pass to the order of the day.

Prior to the debate on the Turkish incident, M. Berry asked leave to interpellate the government regarding the measures it proposed to take in accordance with the other governments to call upon the British government to remove the women and children in the South African concentration camps to healthful districts.

M. Deschanel, president of the chamber, remarked that it would be difficult to interpellate the French government for the acts of the British government. After a brief discussion, during which M. Millevoye was called to order for speaking of Mr. Chamberlain, the British colonial secretary, as a coward and an assassin, the chamber decided to debate M. Berry's interpellation at a later date.

The chamber then, by 395 to 77, voted, sustaining the government's action toward Turkey and expressed confidence in the long term.

A LONG CANOE VOYAGE.

Two Canadians Arrive in Apia from Vancouver.

A DAILY NUISANCE.

A Simple Remedy Which Will Interest
Catarrh Sufferers.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later, the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucus, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The remedy treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastis, Eucalyptol and similar cleansing antiseptics which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth. In this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche. In addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche may be used in conjunction with the internal use of the tablets.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching, and local application and further, that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 40 cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

having traveled in that time a distance of 5,000 miles. After leaving Vancouver, B. C., they sailed for 56 days without seeing land or sail of any description and on August 31 they landed at Penrhyn Island. From there they cruised to Fiji, Botany Bay, and the Cape of Good Hope, where they were met by a few hours in Apia—only long enough to secure a supply of water and provisions—and then set sail for Sydney by way of Fiji. Both men were in good health and expressed themselves as satisfied that they would be able to complete their undertaking.

St. Louis Tetanus Cases.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—The coroner's inquiry into the infection of anti-toxin serum with tetanus germs which, it is alleged, caused the death of ten children and the serious condition of others, was concluded today after the testimony of Dr. Chas. Ellis, health department veterinarian; Dr. E. W. Faure and Dr. H. L. Nier, superintendent of the City hospital, had been taken. Deputy Coroner Frank Boogher said that the verdict would be postponed until the three experts, who are making bacteriological tests of the serum, have made their report.
